Introduction

Overview

Accreditation is the process of evaluating the performance and effectiveness of an institution in order to ensure that the quality of education and student achievement of expected outcomes are being met. The three colleges in the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD), as well as the non-credit institution, SDCCD Continuing Education, completed their self-studies and accreditation site visits in the fall 2010. Each institution collected, reviewed and incorporated evidence into their self-study reports and was then visited by a site study team. The Accreditation Commission reviewed the recommendations from the site study team and then made commendations and recommendations for improvements. Each of the colleges and CE are scheduled to submit mid-term reports in 2013 to the Accreditation Commission in order to ensure compliance and maintain accredited status.

Purpose

The purpose of this survey was to collect follow-up evidence on employee satisfaction, and to track changes since the previous survey, which was administered in 2009. The survey captures levels of satisfaction with programs, services, instruction and facilities, as well as perceptions and opinions regarding institutional effectiveness. The results of the survey may be used to help inform decisions and plans for improvements, as well as to identify key areas of strengths and opportunities.

Sample Design

The Employee Satisfaction Survey used a census sample design in which all employees at the colleges and Continuing Education (all faculty, staff, and administrators) were invited to participate. The expected response rate at each institution was 20% to 35%.

Instrumentation

The Office of Institutional Research and Planning referenced the previous accreditation survey administered in 2009 and worked primarily with the accreditation coordinating committees, the research committees, and the academic senates to refine the survey instrument. The survey contained profile questions (e.g., work status) in order to help examine the representation of the survey population against the entire employee population. The survey also contained open-ended questions and forced choice items representing the Accreditation Standards: Improving Institutional Effectiveness (Standard I); Student Learning Programs and Services, Instructional Programs, Student Support Services, and Library and Learning Support Services (Standard II); Human Resources, Technological Resources, Physical Resources, and Financial Resources (Standard III); Decision-Making Roles and Processes, and College and District Administration (Standard IV).

Face validity and content validity of the survey instrument were ensured using the following criteria: 1) Survey questions are aligned with the Accreditation Standards; 2) Survey questions are directly related to the purpose of the surveys, which is to elicit perceptions and opinions of employees; 3) Survey questions are perceptually-based instead of factually-based; 4) Survey questions avoid addressing complex processes or systems that most survey participants would not be able to answer or are not applicable to them. Surveys were validated (content and face validity) through the feedback from the committees and various constituency groups on campus. Reliability was established through the pilot study.

Methodology

An invitation to participate in the online survey was sent to all employees, along with multiple notifications (i.e., pre-notification, invitation to survey, and follow up reminder notifications). A pencil and paper format of the survey was also available to all employees if requested. The online survey was administered via the Zoomerang® online survey tool. Those opting for the paper and pencil format obtained the survey instrument and a Scantron form from the campus-based researcher, and then returned the completed survey to the District Office of Institutional Research and Planning.

Implementation

Communications: The Accreditation Committee, the Research Committee, the Academic senates, and the Planning Committees were kept informed and involved in the development and implementation processes through continuous communication and feedback opportunities including: 1) Review of the survey plan, 2) Review and finalization of the survey instrument, and 3) Review and briefing of the survey results.

Administration: Pre-notification emails were sent by the presidents to all employees to provide information about the survey and requesting that the employees take the survey when it arrived in their e-mail inbox. The Office of Institutional Research and Planning sent the invitation via email during the fourth week of the semester and reminder e-mails were sent by both the president and the Office of Institutional Research and Planning in the weeks following. The surveys took approximately 30 minutes to complete.

Respondent Profile

Of the 753 employees who received the invitation to survey, 251 employees responded. This is a 33% response rate. Caution should be exercised when interpreting the results. Results may only reflect the opinions of those who took the survey and may not reflect the opinions of the general population. Of those who responded, 30% were contract faculty, 34% were adjunct faculty, 23% were classified, 4% were managers, and 7% were supervisors. These proportions show notable discrepancies from the Miramar College employee population. In particular, all the employee classifications were overrepresented with the exception of adjunct faculty (which was underrepresented).

Of those respondents who identified themselves as either manager, classified, or supervisory, nearly half of were from Instruction/Instructional Support Services (46%) and over a quarter (28%) were from Student Support Services. The remaining respondents were from Administrative Services (12%), Information Technology (6%), and Other (8%). More than one-third of respondents had been with the college for 11 or more years (38%) and exactly half (50%) between two and 10 years. Moreover, exactly half reported being with the District for 11 or more years (49%) and forty-one percent between 2 and 10 years.

Key Findings

Institutional Effectiveness

Overall, the majority of the employees had positive perceptions about the college improving institutional effectiveness. Employees also expressed satisfaction with instructional programs and SLOs/administrative unit outcomes. This observation is consistent with the trend found in the 2009 Employee Satisfaction survey results. For the SLOs and administrative unit outcomes assessment items with no referential point of comparison from the 2009 Employee Satisfaction survey, the majority of employees also rated high satisfaction. The survey items which showed a downward shift in satisfaction ratings by employees were the Office of Instruction and library resources. The lack of confidence employees have displayed in rating the overall quality of the Office of Instruction as neutral or unsatisfactory may be a consequence of the high administrative turnover that occurred between 2009 and 2012. Furthermore, the high dissatisfaction ratings with the overall quality of staffing resources may be due to Miramar not having a human resources plan in place that addresses the growing needs of the college (as corroborated by one of Miramar's accreditation recommendations).

Support Services

Miramar employees showed positive perceptions of support services for students on campus. In particular, the majority of the library and learning support services items showed an upward trend in satisfaction ratings between 2009 and 2012. However, employees showed dissatisfactory ratings for the cafeteria and showed a high percentage of neutral ratings for the business services/fiscal resources. This may indicate that employees may not be involved with, or are not aware of business services/fiscal resources on campus. Furthermore, career technical labs continued to receive high percentages of neutral responses indicating a possible lack of awareness/usage across the College.

Resources

Overall, the majority of employees displayed continued and increased satisfaction with both human and physical resources, increased satisfaction with technological resources, and mixed results for financial resources. Employees increased satisfaction with both technological and physical resources is probably due to the fact that Miramar has been able to construct and complete new facilities on campus due to State and locally approved propositions S and N. This has allowed for new technologies to be made available in the newly built classrooms to support teaching and learning. As far as the financial resources, the items regarding the participation in budget development and the college resource allocation model received low and considerably decreasing satisfaction ratings. Furthermore, these items received a high percentage of neutral responses indicating a lack of awareness/usage of the resources.

Decision-Making Processes

The majority of employees continued to be satisfied with the decision-making roles and processes on campus. Data showed an increased trend in satisfaction ratings for college and district administration between 2009 to 2012. However, the results were still mixed. For the college and district administration survey items with no referential points of comparison from the 2009 Employee Satisfaction survey, more than half of the employees also rated high satisfaction. However, employees showed mixed results in regard to the District resource allocation model equitably supporting the sister colleges.

Interaction Group Discussion Recommendations

9/18/2012

- 1) Institutional Effectiveness
  - a. Administer a short and targeted follow-up survey about planning in Spring 2013.
  - b. Administer Point-of-Service (POS) surveys to get specifics regarding campus resources and the “big picture” in regards to satisfaction with the quality of various campus resources.
- 2) Instructional Program and Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)/Administrative Unit Outcomes (AUO)
  - a. Have more interactive technology in the classroom in order to meet the diverse needs of students. Provide professional development on new student learning strategies and additional resources to meet this need (in response to items 21 and 22).
  - b. Provide more communication, awareness, feedback, and input on SLOs/AUOs.
  - c. Need to separate out SLOs from AUOs for items 23 to 26 in next iteration of employee survey.
  - d. Provide data in various formats. Work with CBR and IRP office to get this done.
  - e. Give everyone a chance to look at program review reports. Share program review reports with broader audience and get more people involved in the program review process.
  - f. Implement a more concise format to communicate data in meetings in ways in which people are more likely to use it.
- 3) Student Support Services
  - a. Compare employee survey results to student survey results in order to get a holistic view regarding student services.
  - b. Increase the number of counselors.
- 4) Learning Support Services
  - a. Tease out learning support services from facilities in the next administration of the employee satisfaction survey.
  - b. In the next administration of the employee survey, identify and separate out true learning support services (e.g., library, ILC, bookstore, classroom, labs, PLACe, etc.) from parking, cafeteria, etc., and omit items 42 and 43 (because they are instruction related).
  - c. Separate out business services from fiscal resources as two individual items in the next administration of the employee survey (currently a single item 49).
- 5) Human Resources
  - a. For the next administration of the employee survey make these items more specific. They are too global.

6) Decision-Making Roles and Process

- a. Target benchmark should be around 67% for each item in this section of the survey.
- b. Item 71 is of concern. Specifically, respondents are not well informed and may not be aware of how involved the classified staff is in voicing matters related to college planning, budgeting, and institutional policies.
  - i. Do a follow-up targeted survey to classified personnel about planning and participation in the planning process.
  - ii. Bring to classified executives for discussions regarding the gaps.
- c. Item 74 - Address the same communication issues. More investigation is needed.

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

2. What do you think needs to be improved most at this college?
Respondent #	Response
1	Budget; promoting campus accomplishments to the District
2	Administration stability
3	college leadership and top administration; constant turnover among the latter. Low morale due to continuing failure to get past warning status in the accreditation process.
4	We need more classes to meet the needs of the students. I wish I had a cupboard in my class for the class set of books and supplies.
5	budget concerns
6	My department (Math) is in desperate need of a vital, energetic, and sufficiently sized, full-time committed, faculty.
7	The shared governance structure should be streamlined to reduce the number of committees and make the committee responsibilities and authority clearer.
8	There is no tutoring for Accounting offered at the tutoring center. I have nowhere to refer my online students who could use some tutoring.
9	Provide office space and student-faculty meeting space for adjunct faculty in the sciences.
10	The library: more online databases are needed for instructors where they can find quality video clips that are closed-captioned for use in the classroom and online.
11	Administration needs extensive work - disjointed from staff and their needs.
12	Need a new President
13	Website. It's just horrible--bad layout, too much inaccurate information and just not user-friendly at all.
14	morale
15	Assess current work responsibilities and deploy our "human resources" to emerging areas to increase productivity.
16	replace the the current president, ineffective and disruptive, puppet of current board and chancellor...no concern for team or staff. too many good VPs and deans left rather than watch miramar torn apart, and their voices ignored.
17	I don't really feel that the classified staff and administration put serving the students first. Since many of the instructors at Miramar are adjunct, serving the students means making the adjuncts' jobs easier, not harder. This would include things like restructuring the printing dept and other websites so that faculty can do more work online rather than having to walk through construction to get to their copies and mailbox. I accidentally missed the adjunct orientation last semester and felt I did not miss anything of importance. Miramar needs to draw on the talents and enthusiasm of adjuncts during flex week.
18	More funding.
19	Some discussion of the structure of shared governance...a little cumbersome at this point. Then the Budget work on the campus needs to include more dialog internally.
20	To focus on improvement using quality data and not being pushed around by a stronger college
21	Need more space for our staffs and our students, need more facilities for our student.
22	Funding, commuication, and facilities.
23	Training for newly hired adjunct instructors who teach online.
24	Excessive administrator turnover.

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

25	Sidewalks at Miramar need to be improved. The entrance to the college is not easily wheelchair-accessible. If a student gets off the bus, the student has to walk against traffic in the exit roadway because there is no connecting sidewalk from Black Mtn Road to the College sidewalk. In addition, most students are not using the sidewalks, i.e. they walk through the Child Development Parking lot because the sidewalks are poorly laid out. Construction is getting too much in the way of things. Construction workers have taken up the staff lot, forcing employees to park across the campus. By 9am, staff spaces are hard to come by in LOT 1. If you are a regular employee, you get a less favorable treatment when it comes to parking, whereas if you are a parking enforcement staff, you get to park your personal vehicles right next to your building in a designated garage. There is also no motorcycle parking for staff. Smoking policies are not strictly enforced. If you walk along the walkway of the new Student Union Building around 6-6:30pm (before classes start), smokers are everywhere within 20 feet of the Science building entrances. Staffing plan & succession planning should be in place and communicated to all employees. With the hiring freeze, departments need to be reconfigured to better align area responsibilities and staff coverage. The district was quick in removing staff shift differentials and reducing student service hours, which impacted employee morale. Hiring practices are not strictly enforced. Membership in the hiring committee should consist of employees who work in the department/division or who will work closely with the new hire and is knowledgeable of the duties of the vacant position being filled, instead of membership based on a random selection of members by constituent groups. There is an excessive number of acting and interim assignments in administration, prior to a position getting filled. Appointments for "acting administrator" that do not go through the regular hiring process should be free from political influence or personal favoritism.
26	Shared governance is an illusion. We DESPERATELY need a new president. PLEASE SEND HELP!!
27	I am satisfied with everything
28	Limit the size of division under a dean. More equitable size among deans/division should be mandated. FTEF can be used for this purpose.
29	Increased participation by faculty - meaning more faculty participate - in all aspects of campus programs and development.
30	Establish a stronger student community with new buildings!
31	the gov needs to increase revenue so the college can hire faculty and staff to meet the needs of the students
32	more tenure track lines
33	The horrible shared-use agreement with the City.
34	As adjunct faculty if I say something in a meeting it is the stupidest thing ever said. If a contract faculty member says it five minutes later it is a water-shed idea and deserves hours of discussion.
35	Student life needs to be improved.
36	It seems that those working in support positions (administration) are often very unhappy. It has also been my experience the few times something has gone wrong, people have a tendency to blame the "system" or each other instead of taking care of the business at hand.
37	Unfortunately, many programs have been cut due to the budget restrictions, but one of the issues that I find most frustrating is the lack of DSPS resources available. I have referred several students only to find out that they have been put on a waiting list and have not received any services. They system of giving out keys and codes to faculty can also be improved. Sometimes, a room does not get coded until several weeks into the semester, thereby leaving the faculty to rely on the dean or the facilities team to open their room. Also, some additional explanation and training as to what benefits are available to adjuncts would be helpful. Someone to assist with questions about the retirement plan and what the union has to offer would be very helpful.

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

38	Transparent budget process.
39	Suggestions need to be taking more seriously
40	leadership
41	The president needs to be removed. She is totally incompetent. But, alas, that will never happen because the district is not committed to Miramar. The climate at the campus is among the worst I've seen it. The president does all the right public things to please the chancellor, but underneath it all, her minions are rewarded for their service and other programs are left in the dust. There is no equity at Miramar, only favoritism.
42	The District and the State of California, but then they are not at this college are they? The College would be better off on its own, not in a multi-college district.
43	get back more staff parking, know it is a problem because of all of the construction
44	Managers and supervisors need to get trained in treating staff with dignity and respect.
45	Facilities services--not enough staff available to address facility needs for janitorial, maintenance and groundskeeping. Older buildings on campus have not been provided with the proper furniture to address ergonomic needs, have inadequate and outdated ventilation systems, and are generally in a state of disrepair.
46	Change the College President, what a disaster
47	safety issue continually ignored for over 2 years, in A-200 building, need up-dated furniture asap, using 1980 desks with modern computers...not good for staff's health !!!!
48	We need the state to stop the budget cuts and provide us more financial help so that we can replenish our staff and faculty positions that has been frozen.
49	When staff takes computer classes in campuses, it would be a good idea if the teacher allows the staff to do on their project and help out if there is a need.
50	Leadership. Staffing back to 2008 levels. Stop continually revising the Program Review template/model.
51	Timely posting of minutes/agendas of committee meetings. Waiting till they are approved at the next meeting results in the information being overcome by events/ outdated.
52	Complaining employees who are not willing to put the college first, instead of themselves.
53	To consistently offer courses to enable students to meet their educational goals.
54	Improvement of the morale of overworked faculty and staff, and a broader engagement in the future of the College
55	a social environment among contract and adjunct employees
56	The strict rules in Duplicating about walk-in/same day copying are ineffective. Instead of making copies for me quickly while I'm standing there, I have to make extra trips to pick them up, and the location of Duplicating is extremely inconvenient. Also, the staff makes me feel like I am a bad person for asking for copies when I am only doing my job well, and as a part-timer, only on campus infrequently. In addition, I would like to be able to teach in the new H building instead of being stuck in rooms S5-105 and I-124 every semester. At night when I'm trying to teach in S5-105, the cleaning crew is banging around making noise in adjacent rooms. Also, the document camera in S5-105 is blurry and out of focus. I believe students will perform better if they are able to study in the new classrooms. There are classrooms available in the H building on Mon/Wed nights, but I am not able to teach in them in spite of asking dept. chair repeatedly. The I- building is dirty. In I-123, the whiteboards don't get clean enough. The computers in I-124 are constantly having issues.
57	Honest: dialog, research, discussion and improvements in the taboo areas that administrators and shared governance avoid. There is a lot of kicking the can down the road or avoidance all together in areas where Miramar College offers poor service or produces inconsistent/incomplete results.

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

58	Some campus deans consistently violate the shared governance process. The administration often uses "management by crisis" techniques to run the campus. Some staff and faculty are only here to collect a paycheck and have no interest in providing quality service to students.
59	Move away from archaic paper processes like the need to sign the roster on a carbon copy form. I do not have to do this at other colleges. The on-line system should be enough. Have all processes available on-line versus paper like signing the TAO, getting a parking permit, etc. Do away with ALL Paper!!!!
60	Allocating office space where adjuncts can meet with the students (this issue will be addressed for my department when the new Science building is completed)
61	I would love to see a larger library with greater capacity for students and more scientific generals. I also look forward to the day when i can get more quickly from the HSS building to the admin building to more easily access such things as the mailroom/scantron room. Every minute counts for those of who are only part-time and can't get to campus every day due to outside obligations. I would also like to see increased lighting at night outside classroom buildings, so that students and teachers who attend/teach nighttime classes can feel greater safety when departing the building between 9:40pm to 10pm (or later for teachers who need to breakdown rooms and/or answer student questions. Finally, my dream is that we could have a class on Ethics (required of all incoming students) as it relates not only to honesty and plagiarism in the classroom, but also as it relates to ethics and responsibility in the workplace, in government and the world at large. (Perhaps such a class already exists and I haven't heard of it.)
62	More stable administration; less turnover of VP's especially. Easier access to Repro., which is a problem due to the construction and lack of parking near Repro. (Too hard to get to in a timely manner) More 3-5 minute parking is needed near the core of campus services (Admissions, bookstore, Repro., etc.)
63	the importance of our role in providing unique programs in this district
64	Drought resistance landscape - no green lawns.
65	how can we expect slo's to be assessed when managers tell adjuncts they do not need to attend training sessions, norming discussions or professional development. AND then when adjuncts do not teach via the course outline of record and are told they do not have to - it makes it impossible to expect us to evaluate their effectiveness accurately
66	Shared governance involving & including all constituents; adequate staffing.
67	No comment.
68	The college needs more permanent faculty.
69	The president is a joke and needs to go. She is incompetent and does not display leadership. She is not president material and has done little to foster community in the campus. The campus climate is the worst I have ever seen it in over 20 years--and that is saying A LOT. But the chancellor supports her top down dictatorial style, so I guess we'll be stuck with her forever. 'Tis a pity, but then that is the Miramar legacy.
70	Greater ease of access to rooms and equipment. Better organization. Clearer communication about due dates, class scheduling, who to go to for particular matters. more transparency about hiring andscheuling practices.
71	More of a voice in curriculum and book selection by senior adjunct faculty.
72	Respect for adjunct faculty by contract faculty and staff. It is terrible by almost every standard.
73	Communication and morale at the campus level.

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

74	Student Learning Outcomes are a Joke: They have no meaning but to check the box for accreditation. The District needs to work with the college to provide adequate faculty. The District needs to stop using up all the resources and put them into TEACHING!
75	Need to hire more classified staff(replace staff that is frozen) and stop asking staff to do more with less(there is alot of stress in classified). Pay raises ( give Colas agian.)
76	There should be separate restrooms for students and staff. It is unprofessional to share stalls next to students as students tend to discuss school-related issues at the most inappopriate time.
77	Funding for copying. I spend too much of my salary on copies because we are constantly told to be careful with the department's limited funding for copying. It is not fair. We also need to improve the way we remove disruptive students from the classes. Removing them for only three days doesn't help matters. Disruptive students should be removed immediately. Send out less e-mail. Do not pressure contract faculty to work on the campus over the summer or the winter break when they are not under contract. Get towel paper in the bathroom in the H building.
78	No
79	Place for adjuncts in a particular field to put there personal items and meet with other adjuncts. This allows for exchange of ideas and makes adjuncts feel more a part of the Miramar Community.
80	The "apearence" that faculty do not participate in small activites outside the classrooms with classified staff.
81	Need counselors and registration officials to stress the need for students to balance job schedules/hours with the number of units taken. Working full time and taking 3 or 4 classes almost guarantees failure.
82	The claiming of this college as an elite college with its own set of rules of governing, except on paper.
83	Nothing at this time as the facilities have just had a remodel that make it a pleasure to teach at this college. Students even seem to like to way the college has been improved and this has positively effected the students.
84	I think the College is moving at the pace it should
85	Better leadership
86	Staffing.
87	The old guard needs to let go of the past and focus on the future.
88	Staffing Shortfalls
89	While somewhat out of the college's hands, the budget problems are completely out of control and negatively effecting all aspects of working at Miramar.
90	* Need more Staff Development Workshops for Classified Staff, e.g., Microsoft Office; Word, Excel, Access, & PowerPoint – all levels. * Need a better way to communicate the Campus Budget/Resource Development & Allocation process. It's well designed, but complicated – and most don't understand how it works. Perhaps a FLEX activity (Faculty and classified) would help.
91	communication and more funding for staff development
92	Department chairpersons need to be evaluated. There are several who undermine our adjuncts, deans and the college president. That is why we cannot keep good adjuncts and deans.
93	less turnover in the administration ie: constant changes in the Deans, VP Of Instruction, etc.
94	We need to assess administration at the president level.
95	No

Miramar College – Employee Open-Ended Responses

96	More volunteer
97	Department and inter-department collaboration.
98	There are far too many committees and essentially the college is over functioning.
99	Student support services needs staffing! Many of us and our staff are wearing multiple hats. We are asked to adjust our lives by working 4/10's in the summer then back to a regular work week during the year. We face upset students everyday trying to explain new procedures, shortened hours and an ever changing scheudle while doing the work of others, who's positions were never filled.
100	It would be nice to have a copy of my textbook in the library for students who can't afford to buy one
101	Administrative turnover
102	Diversity in the staffing
103	There is no internet access in the classroom. If I want to show a video from a web source I use my own internet card to access. I pay $40 a month for the internet card. I wish there was internet access for the staff at NTC
104	We need smart classrooms!
105	More classes
106	Clearer day-to-day information for adjuncts (a lot of little things like how to order book desk copies are left for us to just 'figure out') and better student/teacher meeting facilities for adjuncts.
107	More Full Time Contract Staff.
108	Need for intergration of classroom/non-classroom adjunct faculty into the campus community and support and encouragement of their participation on campus. Need for opportunities for professional development for adjuncts.
109	The college president is particularly weak, and the dean of    is a poor leader who needs to be replaced.
110	Less turn around of administration.
111	WE need more full time math teachers here!
112	Reviewing the budget cuts so we keep students. Students generate the business. We are here for them and because of them
